Celebrating 21 years

We invite you to be a part of this special, USO era themed celebration! An evening of dinner, history, entertainment and expressions of appreciation for the support of our donors, sponsors, members, volunteers and partnering nonprofit organizations. By partnering with us on this event as a SPONSOR you are not only ensuring the success of this event, but investing in new education programs and promoting another 21 years for CCVMM!

About The Veterans Museum

The Central Coast Veterans Memorial Museum (CCVMM), is a 501c3 nonprofit, history museum in San Luis Obispo, est. in 2002. CCVMM's mission is to honor all veterans from past and present, thorough education programs, hosting Veterans Day & Memorial Day events for the public, preservation of history and historic artifacts, and recording and honoring the stories of our U.S. veterans, with emphasis on those from the Central Coast of California.

Established in 2002 by local veterans and supporting organizations. The Veterans Museum has been run solely by volunteer donating their time and talents. Beyond museum operations and archives, the museum develops special exhibits, hosts group tours and runs an active internship program with Cal Poly and Cuesta.

Recording Veteran Stories

In partnership with the US Library of Congress since 2002. Free service for all veterans to record their story, preserving history!

Preserving Historic Artifacts

Extensive collection of historic artifacts are on permanent display and maintained in our Archives.

Schools, Youth & Internships

Education is a foundation of the museum with college interns each quarter & tours & presentations for all ages year round.

Education Programs

Speaker Series, Exhibit Talks, Group Tours, Veteran Spotlights, and more highlight the history of our Veterans.

Community & Honor

Annual Veterans Day and Memorial Day events. We also collaborate with veteran and history groups to honor veterans.
