

DAUNTLESS

FREE Author Talk in San Luis Obispo on WWII History

Learn the critical roles and secret missions of the U.S. Army 1st and 2nd Filipino Infantry Regiments whose clandestine units and covert missions helped liberate the Philippines from the Japanese during WWII

WWII Historian & Author Marie Silva Vallejo

For ten years Vallejo sought the answer to what her late father did during World War II, leading her to uncover one of the Philippines' biggest contributions to its own liberation – secret reconnaissance missions conducted by Filipino soldiers in the U.S. Army.

The Filipino soldiers relayed vital information from General Douglas MacArthur to guerrilla units dispersed throughout the Philippines.

Thursday, July 25, 2024

2:00 pm - SLO Vets Hall

801 Grand Ave., San Luis Obispo

with support from the Filipino Community of Greater San Luis Obispo County

VetMuseum.org

Sponsored by the
Central Coast
Veterans Memorial Museum

Kindly RSVP: email CCVMM.programs@gmail.com, or scan QR code